Comparing fractions problems

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 8

Read each problem, solve it and write the answer.

Example Ethan and Jack have two cakes of the same size. Ethan eats 1/11 of one and Jack eats 1/2 of the other. Who eats more? Jack eats more, because 1/2 is greater than 1/11.

1. After the match, Owen eats 3/10 of one and Mia eats 1/2 of the other, and both watermelons are the same size. Who eats less?

Answer: _____

2. Lucas and Jack paint two fences of the same length. Lucas paints 1/3 of one and Jack paints 1/5 of the other. Who paints more?

Answer: _____

3. Owen and Ethan read two books with the same number of pages. Owen has read 1/6 of one and Ethan has read 1/2 of the other. Who has read more?

Answer: _____

Comparing fractions problems

4 At a snack, Ava eats 2/7 of one and Emma eats 1/5 of the other, and both pizzas are the same size. Who has eaten less?

Answer: _____

5 Grace and Chloe travel in two cars with gas tanks of the same capacity. On arrival, Grace has used 5/9 of one and Chloe has used 1/2 of the other. Who has used less?

Answer: _____

6 Chloe and Grace had the same amount of money. Chloe spent 5/7 of her money and Grace spent 1/3 of her money. Who spent less?

Answer: _____

Comparing fractions problems

7 Ava and Owen have two pizzas of the same size. Ava eats 1/9 of one and Owen eats 5/11 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

8 Ethan and Emma train on two running tracks of equal length. Ethan runs 1/10 of one and Emma runs 2/3 of the other. Who runs farther?

Answer: _____