Comparing fractions problems: kitchen

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 8

Read each problem, solve it and write the answer.

Example Ava and Owen have two chocolate bars of the same size. Ava eats 1/12 of one and Owen eats 1/2 of the other. Who eats more? Owen eats more, because 1/2 is greater than 1/12.

1. Lucas and Grace have two pies of the same size. Lucas eats 1/2 of one and Grace eats 6/11 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

2. At a snack, Lucas eats 1/7 of one and Jack eats 1/6 of the other, and both loaves of bread are the same size. Who has eaten less?

Answer: _____

3. Liam and Grace have two pizzas of the same size. Liam eats 3/5 of one and Grace eats 1/2 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

Comparing fractions problems: kitchen

4 Chloe and Liam have two pizzas of the same size. Chloe eats 1/4 of one and Liam eats 2/5 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

5 Grace and Liam have two chocolate bars of the same size. Grace eats 1/4 of one and Liam eats 3/11 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

6 Ava and Ethan have two chocolate bars of the same size. Ava eats 3/4 of one and Ethan eats 7/8 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

Comparing fractions problems: kitchen

7 Lucas and Liam have two pizzas of the same size. Lucas eats 7/12 of one and Liam eats 1/5 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____

8 Olivia and Jack have two loaves of bread of the same size. Olivia eats 1/6 of one and Jack eats 1/3 of the other. Who eats more?

Answer: _____